

From: Brian Correia
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/20/02 4:57am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement.

This settlement proposal from Microsoft is inadequate and unjust. Reparations should be monetary and large enough to at least partially compensate for damages while also serving as punishment and a deterrent. Under no circumstances should Microsoft be allowed to further damage competition by dumping its products into the education market.

This proposal is worse than not good enough, its clearly wrong.

Thank you for requesting my input.

Signed,
Concerned Consumer